
INTERMEDIATE GUIDANCE OFFICE

IGO

NEWSLETTER 2017-18

Intermediate Guidance Office (IGO) extends academic guidance and career counseling tailored exclusively for Intermediate students.

Housed in Sinclair Extension -112, Intermediate Guidance Office strives to strengthen student welfare by maintaining a close working partnership with students and faculty.

Students can book one-on-one advisory sessions with College Counselor by filling in an appointment form.

Sessions focus on extending guidance that will stem out obstacles preventing students from actualizing their potential and accomplishing academic goals.

College Counselor's meetups with parents fortify student parent teacher triangle.

During academic session IGO hosts sessions, events, interactive and motivational talks; all with the sole agenda of infusing students with awareness, confidence, information and a set of skills to recognize opportunities around them and become all that they are called to be.
